

Internship at University Alliance Ruhr in New York City

The North American liaison office of the University Alliance Ruhr (UA Ruhr) representing Ruhr University Bochum, TU Dortmund University, and University of Duisburg-Essen serves as the gateway for higher education collaboration at our partner universities and to initiate and sustain transatlantic cooperation.

The duties of the office include but are not limited to:

- Science communication and science diplomacy activities such as the initiation and the development of research cooperation between UA Ruhr and universities in North America
- Strategically support the academic mobility of students and teachers with their own programs and provide as needed wide range of information
- Initiate joint study and teaching projects (e.g., summer programs, faculty led programming and other student, faculty, and staff exchanges).
- Publicize the research achievements of the UA Ruhr in the USA and Canada, e.g., by organizing events as well as press and public relations work
- Strengthen the bond between alumni and friends of the Ruhr area and to the UA Ruhr

The UA Ruhr offers students in later semesters who are enrolled at our universities the opportunity to do an internship in our office in New York City. You will gain an insight into the work of the liaison office and UA Ruhr, participate in the planning and implementation of events and visits to trade fairs, and you will support the development of new information offerings. You will also actively participate in the implementation of our flagship fellowship programs.

To apply you must have the following requirements:

- Very good German language skills (native speaker level)
- Very good knowledge of spoken and written English (at least C1)
- Very good user skills in Outlook, Excel, Word, as well as research writing in English
- Excellent knowledge of working with website (content management systems) and social media (Twitter, Facebook, LinkedIn, Instagram etc.)
- Started and are enrolled UA Ruhr university studies leading to a diploma, bachelor's degree, master's degree, state examination for secondary school or a doctorate (at least 3 semesters)
- Strong interest in educational policy issues, science communication and management
- Excellent writing and editing skills
- Experience in project management
- High social and organizational skills
- Good team work attitude!

We are looking for an intern for the following tasks for the period of 6.5 months:

April 1, 2025 until October 15, 2025

- Support of the flagship fellowship programs

- Ruhr Fellowship Program
- Transatlantic Ruhr Fellowship Program
- Future's Fellowship Program

- Writing press releases and notifications about upcoming projects and events in German and English
- Assistance in the planning and organization as well as the publicity-effective preparation and follow-up of events for scientists, students, and alumni of the UA Ruhr
- Assisting in establishing contacts with universities, intermediary organizations, and press contacts including contact database management
- Expansion and maintenance of the social media channels for the public relations of the UA Ruhr in the USA and Canada

We offer:

- Excellent working environment in our office, which is in the building of the German Consulate General and the Permanent Mission of the Federal Republic of Germany to the United Nations
- Insights into the international work of the UA Ruhr and into international science management
- Subsidy for the visa procurement costs
- Scholarship of USD 1500.00 per month towards expenses (pro-rated for 0.5 months)
 - it is possible to apply to the university for a PROMOS scholarship for this internship
- Assistance with J-1 visa application through our internship J1 visa provider

Visa:

To complete an internship with us, a J-1 visa must be applied for. As soon as you have received confirmation from us, we will put you in direct contact with Cultural Vistas, a partner organization in New York responsible for the visa. Cultural Vistas is a " visa sponsorship organization " and is authorized by the US State Department to issue the visa paperwork (DS-2019) for you. Please note that you will only receive your visa after Cultural Vistas has issued the DS-2019. Usually, the DS-2019 is issued very quickly, while the issuing of the visa by the respective consulate can take a long time. You should therefore plan three months from the time you are accepted until the start of the internship.

Health Insurance:

Cultural Vistas will arrange health insurance for you that is valid in the USA. This insurance is required for all interns. Further details on visa procurement can be found here: <http://culturalvistas.org/programs-for-students-and-professionals/train-usa/services-and-fees>
